

Personal Information

Full name	Makoto Shinohara
Current position	Chairman
Organization	Japan Vacuum Industry Association
Country	Japan

Short Biography

Makoto Shinohara is the Chairman of Japan Vacuum Industry Association. He joined Shimadzu Corporation in 1980, got involved in development of Cyclotron for Medical use (1980-1986), GaAs/Si hetero-epitaxial growth by Ion Beam (1987-1993), and obtained his PhD from Kyoto Institute of Technology in 1993. Subsequently, he got involved development and business of Low-energy Ion scattering spectroscopy(1994-1997), TFT array tester using electron beam(1998-2007). He had successive jobs as general manager such as quality assurance department (2004-2007), production department (2007-2010), director (2011-2015) in Industry Machinery Division. His current position in Shimadzu Corporation is Corporate Officer, and belongs to Technology Research Laboratory. He received the OHM Technology Award in 2002.